

WHEREAS, every day, more than 110 Americans are killed by gun violence, alongside more than 200 who are shot and wounded, and on average there are nearly 16,000 gun homicides every year: and,

WHEREAS, Americans are 26 times more likely to die by gun homicide than people in other high-income countries; and,

WHEREAS, Texas has 3,647 gun-deaths every year, with a rate of 12.7 deaths per 100,000 people. Texas has the 28th highest rate of gun deaths in the US; and,

WHEREAS, gun homicides and assaults are concentrated in cities, with more than half of all firearm-related gun deaths in the nation occurring in 127 cities; and,

WHEREAS, cities across the nation, including in Port Arthur, are working to end the senseless violence with evidence-based solutions; and,

WHEREAS, protecting public safety in the communities they serve is mayors' highest responsibility; and,

WHEREAS, support for the Second Amendment rights of law-abiding citizens goes hand-in-hand with keeping guns away from people with dangerous histories; and,

WHEREAS, mayors and law enforcement officers know their communities best, are the most familiar with local criminal activity and how to address it, and are best positioned to understand how to keep their citizens safe; and,

WHEREAS, gun violence prevention is more important than ever as the COVID-19 pandemic continues to exacerbate gun violence after more than two years of increased gun sales, increased calls to suicide and domestic violence hotlines, and an increase in city gun violence; and,

WHEREAS, in January 2013, Hadiya Pendleton was tragically shot and killed at age 15; and on June 3, 2022, to recognize the 25th birthday of Hadiya Pendleton (born: June 2, 1997), people across the United States will recognize National Gun Violence Awareness Day and wear orange in tribute to -

- (1) Hadiya Pendleton and other victims of gun violence; and
- (2) the loved ones of those victims; and,

WHEREAS, the idea was inspired by a group of Hadiya's friends, who asked their classmates to commemorate her life by wearing orange; they chose this color because hunters wear orange to announce themselves to other hunters when out in the woods and orange is a color that symbolizes the value of human life; and,

WHEREAS, anyone can join this campaign by pledging to wear orange on June 4th, the first Friday in June in 2022, to help raise awareness about gun violence; and,

WHEREAS, by wearing orange on June 3, 2022, Americans will raise awareness about gun violence and honor the lives of gun violence victims and survivors; and,

WHEREAS, we renew our commitment to reduce gun violence and pledge to do all we can to keep firearms out of the wrong hands and encourage responsible gun ownership to help keep our children safe.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Thurman Bill Bartie, Mayor of Port Arthur, Texas, do hereby proclaim the first Friday in June- June 3, 2022- as in the City of Port Arthur and encourage all citizens to support their local communities' efforts to prevent the tragic effects of gun violence and to honor and value human lives.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Port Arthur to be affixed this 24th day of May in the year of our Lord, 2022.

Thurman Bill Bartie, Mayor
